5 NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

7 RYAN HYAMS,

8 Plaintiff,

9 v.

10 CVS HEALTH CORPORATION, et al.,

11 Defendants.

12 Case No. 18-cv-06271-PJH

13 ORDER STRIKING LETTER BRIEF

14 Re: Dkt. No. 24

15 On July 26, 2019, plaintiff filed a letter brief with this court regarding discovery
16 issues. Defendants filed a separate response to plaintiff's letter brief on July 28, 2019.
17 Having read the papers filed by the parties and carefully considered their arguments and 18 the relevant legal authority, and good cause appearing, the court hereby rules as follows.

19 On January 11, 2019, this court issued an order entitled CASE MANAGEMENT
20 AND PRETRIAL ORDER. Dkt. 13. That order required that, with respect to discovery
21 disputes, “[t]he parties, after meeting and conferring, shall file a joint letter brief of no
22 more than 5 pages with no more than 12 pages of attachments, explaining the dispute.”
23 Id. at 2. Because plaintiff has filed his own, individual letter brief—not a joint letter brief
24 with defendants, as required by this court’s order—the court hereby STRIKES plaintiff’s letter brief filed at docket number 24.

25 As the court expects that the parties will continue to meet and confer regarding 26 their discovery disagreements, the parties are reminded that this court will firmly enforce
27 the scheduling requirement that all dispositive motions must be heard no later than 120
28 // /

1 days before trial, unless the parties explain good cause supporting another deadline.
